

Jane Eyre

B. Ed.

Personal Information

Date of birth	February 15, 1828
Nationality	British
Civil Status	Married, two children

Education

1835–1838	Homeschooling , Gateshead, grades 1–3. Teacher: Mr. NN, under supervision of my aunt Ms. Reed.
1838–1844	Lowood School , Lowood, grades 3–8. A charitable institution under the guidance of Mr. Brocklehurst.

Work

Teaching

1844–1846	Teacher , Lowood School , Lowood. Teaching all grades.
1846–1847	Governess , Thornfield Hall, Thornfield near Millcote. Governess of Mr. Rochester's ward Adèle, 10 years old.
1847	Village teacher , girl's school , Moore village. Teaching all village girls, mostly farmer's daughters, all grades.

1849–1867 Home schooling, Ferndean.
Educating and teaching my children, a son and a daughter.

Nursing

1847 ff. Nursing my physically impaired husband.
Very poor eyesight and one hand amputated due to a fire.

Management

1847 ff. Management of the family estate.
Including the household at Ferndean and extensive property in England and on the continent.

Languages

English	fluent	mother tongue
French	fluent	oral and written
Hindustani	bits of Computer Knowledges

In my time I didn't have the opportunity to acquire computer knowledges but I am willing to learn the following programs and languages:

accounting	GnuCash	picture editing	gimp
office	LaTeX, LibreOffice	languages	lua, html

Publications

My Life as Mr. Rochester's Right Hand. Ferndean: Ferndean Press, 1888.
"It is enough that all was right". In: Journal of Moral Philosophy 6 (1848), pp. 19–45.

All Elements

cvitem

header cvitem text
1. compactenum item one
2. compactenum item two cvdoubleitem

1st header 1st text 2nd header 2nd text

cvlistitem

- cvlistitem item1
- cvlistitem item2

cvlistdoubleitem

- item1 ○ item2
- item3 ○ item4

cventry

years degree/job title, e.g. institution/employer, e.g. localization, e.g. grade.
comment/job description

cvitemwithcomment

header text comment

links

link description
http link description
e-mail link description